In the name of Allah, the most gracious and the most merciful. All praises to Allah SWT, the Almighty, for the good health and wellbeing that were necessary to complete this thesis. Shalawat and Salaam also propose to the Prophet Muhammad SAW, the messenger of God and our role model.

First of all, I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my thesis advisor, Dr. Nury Effendi, S.E., M.A., for the continuous support of my research, his patience, motivation, and immense knowledge. He consistently allowed this paper to be my own work, but steered me in the right direction whenever he thought I needed. I could not have imagined a better advisor and mentor for my study. I am also deeply indebted to Professor Toru Yanagihara from Takushoku University, for his unceasing supports, invaluable guidance and suggestions in this thesis.

My sincere appreciation also goes to the lecturers of Graduate School of Applied Economics of Padjadjaran University and the Graduate School of International Development Studies of Takushoku University for their valuable insights and knowledge, and also to the academic staff members of those respected institutions for their works in facilitating my study and thesis. Moreover, I would like to thank Pusbindiklatren Bappenas and the staff members of PT. Trippcons Internasional for their trust, supports, and assistance during my study in Indonesia and Japan.

Last but not least, I would like to thank my family: my parents, brother, sister, wife, and children for the constant encouragement, support, and attention throughout this thesis and my life in general.
